Mr. J. E. Milgate
Associate Director, International Division
United States General Accounting Office
Washington, D. C. 20548

Dear Mr. Milgate:

I have your letter of 14 August 1974 concerning the General Accounting Office's intention to conduct a survey of the management of United States trade policy towards developing nations. Although this is a matter completely outside the responsibilities of the Central Intelligence Agency, Mr. Paul V. Walsh, Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence [REDACTED] has been advised of your survey and would be the appropriate Agency contact to discuss your interests and objectives.

If I may be of further assistance to you in this matter will you please advise me.

Sincerely,

STATINTL
